13 required disclosures under any statute, regulation, federal procedural rule, or 14 local rule of the Court, and any supplementary disclosures thereto, including 15 the Administrative Record served and lodged in this case, and any 16 supplementary disclosures thereto.

17 2. Definitions

18 a. The term “Confidential Information” shall mean confidential or 19 proprietary technical, scientific, financial, business, health, medical, or 20 personal privacy or identifying information designated as such by the 21 producing party, any non-public information routinely withheld by 22 Federal Defendants or a third party from the public, or information

24 Federal law or regulations, or Nevada law.

25 b. For purposes of this Stipulated Protective Order, the United States
26 Bureau of Land Management shall be considered the “Producing 27
28

1 Party” of the documents served as part of the Administrative Record in 2 this action and any supplements thereto.

3 3. Designation of Information

- 4 a. Documents produced, furnished, lodged, or served during the course of 5 this action shall be designated as containing Confidential Information
6 by including the legend “Confidential” in the margin of each page or 7 each document (whether in paper or electronic form). Where a 8 document or response consists of more than one page, the first page and 10 designated.

- 11 b. A producing party shall designate its discovery responses, responses to 12 requests for admission, documents included in the Administrative 13 Record, briefs, memoranda, and all other papers sent to the court or to 14 opposing counsel as containing Confidential Information when such 15 papers are served or sent.
- 16 c. A party may designate information disclosed at a deposition as 17 Confidential Information by requesting the reporter to so designate the 18 transcript at the time of the deposition.
- 19 d. A party shall designate information disclosed at a hearing or trial as 20 Confidential Information by requesting the court, at the time the 21 information is proffered or adduced, to receive the information only in 22 the presence of those persons designated to receive such information 23 and court personnel, and to designate the transcript appropriately.
- 24 e. In the event that a producing party inadvertently fails to designate any 25 of its information pursuant to paragraphs 3(a)–(d), it may later
26 designate by notifying the receiving parties in writing. The receiving 27
28

1 parties shall take reasonable steps to see that the information is 2 thereafter treated in accordance with the designation.

3 4. Disclosure and Use of Confidential Information

- 4 a. All Confidential Information produced or exchanged in the course of 5 this case (other than information that is publicly available) shall be used 6 only by the party or parties to whom the information is produced and

19 this litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a 20 copy of the Certification annexed to this Order as Exhibit A
21 before being shown or given any Confidential Information,
22 which executed copy shall be retained by counsel to the party

9 shown and upon order of the Court;
- 10 v. witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(b)(iv)). A 11 witness shall sign the Certification before being shown a 12 document containing Confidential Information. Confidential
13 Information may be disclosed to a witness who will not sign the 14 Certification only in a deposition or court hearing at which the 15 party who designated the Confidential Information is 16 represented. Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not 17 be allowed to retain copies.
- 18 c. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or 23 shall be handled as if they were designated pursuant to paragraph 3.

- 24 e. The terms of this Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise 25 apply to the use of documents at trial or any court hearing, provided the 26 proponent of the evidence gives reasonable notice to all counsel and to 27 the Court. Any party may move the Court for an order that the 28

evidence be received in camera or under other conditions to prevent unauthorized disclosure.

- f. Disclosure of Confidential Information pursuant to this Protective Order shall not be deemed to be a public disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, et seq.

5. Filing Confidential Information

- a. In the event that any receiving party's briefs, memoranda, exhibits, or other papers of any kind that are served or filed include, discuss, or summarize information designated by another party as Confidential Information the papers must be appropriately designated pursuant to paragraph 3 and governed by Local Rule IA 10-5.
- b. Subject to the procedures set forth herein, no documents containing, or otherwise disclosing Confidential Information shall be publicly filed with the Court. Confidential Information shall be submitted to the Court under seal as follows:
- i. The original signed copy of any pleadings containing, referring to, or otherwise disclosing Confidential Information shall be electronically filed with the Clerk of the Court in the normal manner under the Local Rules of this Court, but the Confidential Information contained, referred to, or otherwise disclosed therein shall be redacted (and bear the stamp "redacted") so that it does not appear in the publicly filed copy of the pleading or filing; and
- ii. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule or prior court order, the party shall electronically file the unredacted document under seal, along with a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those documents under seal, consistent with and following the court's electronic filing and service procedures in Local Rule IA 10-5.

- iii. Notwithstanding any agreement among the parties, the party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the presumption in favor of public access to papers filed in court. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006); Pintos v. Pac. Creditors Ass'n, 605 F.3d 665, 677–78 (9th Cir. 2010).

6. Challenges to Confidential Information

- a. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the material. The party or non-party who designated the material shall have twenty-one (21) days from the receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the material as confidential. The party or non-party seeking the order has the burden of establishing that the material is entitled to protection.
- b. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential Information, all documents so designated shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions hereof unless and until one of the following occurs:
- i. The party or non-party claims that the material is Confidential Information withdraws such designation in writing; or
 - ii. The party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential Information fails to apply to the Court for an order designating the material confidential within the time period specified above after receipt of a written challenge to such designation; or
 - iii. The Court rules the material is not confidential.

1 c. No party shall be obligated to challenge the propriety of any designation 2 when made, and failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent 3 challenge to the propriety of such designation.

4 7. All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of 5 Confidential Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of 6 this action, including through all appeals, unless otherwise agreed or ordered.
7 Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the possession of Confidential
8 Information, other than that which is contained in pleadings, correspondence, 9 and deposition transcripts, shall either (a) return such documents no later than 10 sixty (60) days after conclusion of this action to counsel for the party or non-11 party who provided such information, or (b) destroy such documents within 12 the time period upon consent of the party who provided the information and 13 certify in writing within sixty (60) days that the documents have been 14 destroyed. The provisions of this paragraph shall not be binding on the United 15 States, any insurance company, or any other party to the extent that such 16 provisions conflict with applicable Federal or State law. The Department of 17 Justice, any insurance company, or any other party shall notify the producing 18 party in writing of any such conflict it identifies in connection with a particular 19 matter so that such matter can be resolved either by the parties or by the 20 Court.

21 8. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work 22 product protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an 23 inadvertent disclosure of material protected by privilege or work product 24 protection.

25 9. This Order shall survive the termination of this Action and continue in full 26 force and effect thereafter, ~~and the Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce~~
27 ~~this Order.~~
28

10. Any witness or other person, firm or entity from which discovery is sought may be informed of and may obtain the protection of this Order by written advice to the parties' respective counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition or similar proceeding.
11. The parties agree to be bound by the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order pending its approval by the Court.

Respectfully submitted this 2nd day of August, 2021.
